No exceptions. Violators to this rule will be escorted off the premises, barred from future Yaoifest's and reported to the authorities.

Security & Liability

Yaoifest and SAIT are not responsible for any theft, loss or damage. Exhibitors are responsible for their own security during the event. The Exhibitor agrees to protect, keep and save Yaoifest and SAIT, the promoter of the event, forever harmless from any damage(s) or charge(s) imposed for violations of any ordinance or regulation by the Exhibitor, her/his employees or agents, as well as failure to comply with the terms and agreements of this contract. Further, Exhibitors shall at all times protect, indemnify, save, and keep harmless Yaoifest and SAIT against and from any loss, cost, damage, liability or expense which arises out of or from or by reason of any act or omission of the Exhibitor, her/his employees or agents. In the event that SAIT or any part of the exhibit area thereof is unavailable, whether for the entire event or a portion of the event, as a result of fire, flood, tempest, snow storm, or other such cause, or as a result of governmental intervention, malicious damage, acts of war, strike, labour disputes, riot, or agency which Yaoifest has no control, or should Yaoifest decide that because of any such cause it is necessary to cancel, postpone, or resite the event, or reduce installation time, exhibit time, or take down time, Yaoifest shall not be liable to indemnify or reimburse the Exhibitor in respect of any damage or loss, direct or indirect, arising as a result thereof. Artist Alley General Rules

Artist Alley Sections

Sections are available to artists wishing to display and sell their own artwork. For the purposes of Yaoifest's Artists Alley, artwork is taken to include two-dimensional media (drawings, paintings, prints) as well as three-dimensional media (crafts, costuming, etc.). If you have any questions about whether your work is eligible to sell in the Alley, contact Sara at yaoifestexhibits@gmail.com.

Please note that the sale of anything other than artwork of the artist's own creation is prohibited in Artists Alley. We cannot accommodate people acting as agents for artists, or people reselling other people's art. Such items are for the Art Show, not for Artists Alley. Likewise, only artwork created by the artist, not general merchandise, can be displayed. Artists Alley is meant to be a showcase for the artistic talent of our fandom; it is not an inexpensive alternative to the Dealers' Area. The table must be staffed by the artist for the majority of the time the table is held by that artist (we understand that artists, like other attendees, are here to enjoy the convention and need to eat, drink, and provide for their needs.)

Yaoifest accepts no responsibility for materials left unattended. This includes artwork, personal items, etc. We also ask artists kindly to remove any garbage before leaving the area. If you bring your own laptop, please bring your own extension cord, as SAIT will not provide any.

Items generating an unacceptable noise-level are strongly discouraged. This includes:

portable stereos computers, handheld game units, etc. Repeated complaints of excessive noise may result in loss of seat privileges. Please be respectful to your neighbouring artists, they want to enjoy themselves, too.

Artist Alley General Rules

Rating of Artwork

Items with mature themes may be sold, provided that these items are not on public display. Adult oriented materials must be either covered (such as with Post-it notes over the objectionable parts), or kept in a clearly marked binder that is available to view for those who wish to do so. Not all attendees will wish to view mature materials. Please keep mature artwork in separate binders or places separated from your more "general-audience" art. There will be absolutely no Shota or any artwork depicting minor characters in a sexual situation displayed, available to purchase or brought to Yaoifest. Any violations of this rule will result in the violator's immediate removal from Yaoifest, banning from subsequent Yaoifest's. The violator will also be reported to the authorities. Canada has zero tolerance for media depicting minors in sexual situations even if these minors are not modeled on actual people. Yaoifest likewise has zero tolerance for these materials. We want to keep the atmosphere comfortable for everyone so we thank you for your cooperation.

Communications Between Artists and Customers

Artist Alley staff and Yaoifest cannot be held responsible for communications between artists and customers (i.e. for returning sketchbooks, commissions, etc.). Please be sure to exchange contact information on all commissions etc, in case you miss connecting or lose touch with your customer.

Other Things To Keep In Mind

Yaoifest and Artist Alley Staff will not be able to provide you with change for your cashbox, so please be sure to bring sufficient change for yourself. There are areas within SAIT that can exchange your cash, as well as ATMs.

You may use some space in front of your table as long as there is still sufficient space for customers to peruse the Alley, and it is within your provided space.

Finally, have fun and enjoy your time at Yaoifest!
